

ROCKLAND COMMUNITY POWER

Village of South Nyack

REVIEW: NOV 2020 – OCT 2022

This report reviews the impacts of the Village of South Nyack's participation in Rockland Community Power including participation rate, environmental impacts, supply rate comparisons, and customer savings.

Participation

590

590 of the Village's households and small businesses initially eligible participated in Rockland Community Power.

Environmental Impacts

The following data represents environmental impacts of the Village of South Nyack's participation in Rockland Community Power from the program's contract start date in November 2020 to October 2022.

7,417,830 KWH

RENEWABLE ENERGY CONSUMED

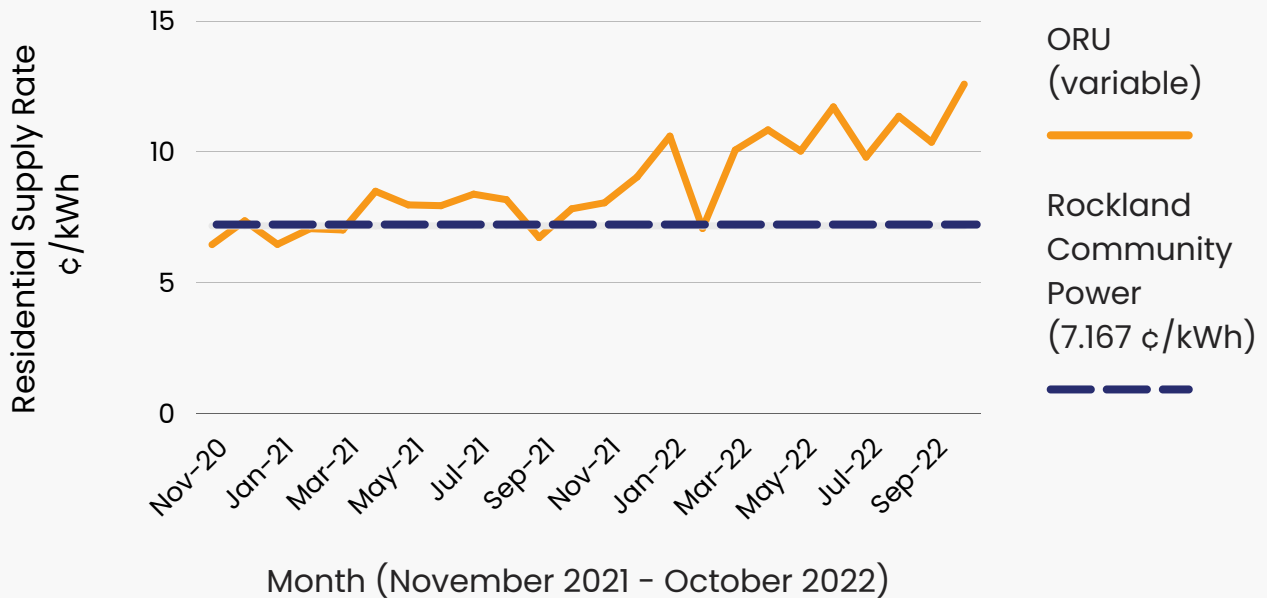

South Nyack participants have used over 7.4 million kWh of 100% renewable electricity sourced right here in New York State.

833 METRIC TONS

CO₂e AVOIDED

Participants helped avoid over 833 metric tons of carbon dioxide equivalent emissions from what would have been produced using ORU's default supply.

Orange & Rockland Utilities Monthly Residential Supply Rates VS Rockland Community Power Residential Rate in ¢/kWh

Orange & Rockland Utilities residential supply data from NY DPS Power to Choose. Data does not include taxes or GRT.

Total customer savings

$137,750

The Rockland Community Power fixed residential electricity supply rate was lower than ORU's variable supply rate 18 out of 24 months, saving the Village of South Nyack's residents $137,750.

References

DPS Power to Choose

EPA Power Profiler Emissions Tool 2020

★ Rockland Community Power Team

☎ Telephone
845-859-9099

🌐 Website
www.rocklandcommunitypower.com